Love of Literature Foundation Canada

Canada's only non-profit book club for Black youth

About

The Love of Literature Foundation Canada provides a safe space for youth to connect with their peers and review Black-focused books with relatable themes. The book club fills a need in the community by improving literacy skills, building confidence and fostering the love of reading in Black youth.

Programs

Representation in literature matters! Our mission is to spark curiosity in Black youth and inspire life-long learners to read books that celebrate, include and represent Black culture.

The Love of Literature reading program educates, inspires and empowers students throughout the year. We are open to all students in Grades 2 to 12 who self-identify as Black. In this program, we will discuss a range of themes and explore Black-focused books from various genres.

Community resource

Love of Literature can support the community by:

- Facilitating book club programs in schools for Black students
- Sharing student-approved book recommendations with schools, libraries and community centres
- Creating leadership and volunteer opportunities for Black students in high school
